4 x 4 Off-Road Adventure

One thing is guaranteed of this experience - there is no way you'll hear the all too familiar whinge from the back seat of 'Are we there yet?' Quite the opposite in fact, as this family off-road adventure will be filled with fun, excitement and maybe even a few stomach-churning moments for you and your two passengers. Begin with an in-car safety briefing before a demonstration lap with your instructor driving (by your side every step of the way to educate and encourage). Then take the wheel of the Land Rover Defender, which will do everything you ask of it, and more. Silverstone's challenging purpose-built off-road course combines steep gradients, big drops and deep water, demanding your full attention as you navigate a tricky obstacle course. You might be going slower than walking pace at times, but precision handling and rock solid nerves are definitely required. Your experience concludes with a debrief after the three of you stumble out of the vehicle onto terra firma.

Availability

Selected weekends throughout the year, approximately twice a month. The whole circuit closes annually between mid December and mid January.

Participant Guidelines

Min height for driver is 4'10", max is 6'7", min age 10 and max age 70. Maximum weight is 18 stone. You must have held a manual driving licence for at least one year and PRESENT IT ON THE DAY. Driver can bring two passengers, minimum height 4'5".

Duration

Expect to be at the venue for up to an hour. Time at the venue is for guidance so not to be misinterpreted as course duration. Total driving time is not less than 20 minutes. Please arrive around 20 minutes prior to your booking to ensure a prompt start.

Numbers on the Day

The car is shared with your instructor and your two passengers.

Spectators

Spectators are welcome and can bring a camera to record your experience. Please note that pets are not permitted at any circuits.

Dress Code

Wear trousers, a long-sleeved shirt and slim, flat-soled shoes (the pedals in these cars can be close together). Please don't wear nylon clothing. A helmet will be provided.

Location

A Ferrari Thrill

Start off with a short briefing from your qualified instructor. What happens next depends on the venue you choose: at Prestwold Hall, Bruntingthorpe, Elvington, Long Marston and Kenilworth you'll tear around four laps in a Ferrari 355 or 360. At Three Sisters, Rockingham, Donington Park or Staffs you'll drive the Ferrari 360 for six exhilarating miles. At some venues you'll also be taken round the circuit in a hot hatch or a sports saloon to find the best racing lines before you drive the Ferrari. It's one of the world's most coveted racing machines - you decide whether it lives up to expectations! You may finish off with a question and answer session and all venues award a certificate to take home.

Availability

Availability varies between the venues, please contact us for details. We do recommend you allow several weeks booking notice for this popular experience.

Participant Guidelines

Restrictions vary but as a guide, minimum height is 4'11" - 5'2", maximum 6'4" - 6'6" and maximum weight 17 - 20 stone. You must hold a full manual driving licence (12 months minimum at some venues).

Duration

Driving time is around ten minutes in total. You'll be at the circuit for between half an hour up to two hours, including your briefing and driving laps.

Numbers on the Day

Your briefing will be shared. All in-car tuition is one-to-one except for any demonstration laps, where up to three other people may be in the car with you.

Spectators

Spectators are welcome and at some venues will get a free 4x4 ride. Children must be closely supervised at all times. Food and refreshments are available at all venues.

Dress Code

Wear trousers, a long-sleeved shirt and flat-soled shoes. A helmet will be provided, or you can bring your own if you have one (which will be safety checked).

Northamptonshire, Staffordshire, Lancashire, Oxfordshire, Derbyshire and North Yorkshire

A Tour of Twickenham with Gareth Chilcott

We can't all score a try at Twickenham, but this experience at least lets you play out some of your rugby dreams. Your experience starts when you meet Bath, England and British Lions legend Gareth Chilcott. After a tea or coffee, Gareth will take you on a tour of Twickenham, including the England team dressing room, the Royal Box, the players' tunnel and even the hallowed turf from the pitch side (we challenge you not to imagine you're running out to the roar of the home crowd!). Then visit the interactive Museum of Rugby, which houses the most extensive collection of rugby memorabilia in the world. You will also receive a ten percent discount voucher to use in the rugby store at the end of your tour. Along the way, you'll have plenty of time to get playing tips from Gareth, as well as some insider gossip - Gareth is full of funny stories and anecdotes. Dare you to call him Cooch.

Availability

Selected weekend dates during the year up to October.

Participant Guidelines

Minimum age is 11. Under 16s must be accompanied by a participating adult.

Duration

Your experience lasts for around two and a half hours, including a 90 minute tour.

Numbers on the Day

There will be up to 20 people on the tour.

Dress Code

Dress code is casual. It's a walking tour (including some steps) and some sections are outdoors, so wear comfy shoes and bring a brolly if it's a wet day.
