Dinner and Theatre Evening for Two

Enjoy a dinner for two and then settle into your theatre seats (either upper circle or balcony). Start with a light two-course meal from the pre-theatre menu at a central restaurant (usually Palm Court, Boulevard Brasserie, Maxwells, Prezzo Haymarket or Northumberland Ave) before the entertainment really begins. Each offer modern European or American food and they're located within easy walking distance of theatreland. Then see one from a selection of West End shows to suit every taste - choose from our range including the star-studded, jazz-vibed Chicago; the moving social commentary of Willy Russell's Blood Brothers; the ghostly tale of The Woman in Black; the word-free Stomp or latest new show on the block, Dreamboats and Petticoats.

Availability

Depending on the show you choose, you can book for Monday to Friday evenings (be aware that some shows are not available every single weekday).

Participant Guidelines

Anyone over the age of five is welcome, but children must be accompanied by an adult at all times and sit quietly and unaided in their own seat.

Duration

Evening meals are booked for 6pm. Evening shows start between 7.30pm to 8pm, continuing until 10 - 10.30pm.

Dress Code

The dress code is smart casual please.

Thames Sightseeing and The London Eye for Two

Leave the tube to the stressed-out commuters for a more relaxing way of travelling around London, enjoying the sights on a river cruiser along the Thames. Board your city cruiser and head down the river to Greenwich. The cruise gives you a real insight into the layers of history that have built up along the river, an amazing mixture of old and new, with great views of the Houses of Parliament, Tate Modern, St Paul's and many more London landmarks. Any time you want, you can hop off the boat at any one of four piers, explore and then hop back on later. You can then make your way to the London Eye where you may have to queue a bit, but it'll certainly be worth it when you climb aboard your (air-conditioned) capsule. The Eye slowly turns, giving you sensational panoramic views across London from 135 metres up. Whether you're new to the capital or a born and bred Londoner, this is a fantastic way to enjoy the sights from two unique perspectives.

Availability

Operates every day of the year except Christmas Day. The London Eye is closed on Christmas Day and for annual maintenance between 10 - 21 January. The London Eye opening times April - September are 10am - 9pm daily and October - March from 10am - 8pm daily.

Participant Guidelines

Anyone under 18 must be accompanied by a participating adult. We are pleased to advise that the sightseeing boats and London Eye offer full wheelchair access.

Duration

From Westminster Pier, the earliest departure is at 10am with others throughout the day (you are free to hop on or off the cruiser during any of the many stops). Your flight on the London Eye lasts 30 minutes and can be taken anytime during the day.

Numbers on the Day

The river cruiser carries a maximum of 250 passengers.

Spectators

Spectators are welcome to wave you off from the river bank.

Dress Code

If you're planning to explore London on foot, we'd recommend comfy shoes.
